

Sir Muhammad Iqbal

South Asian Muslim writer, philosopher, and politician

In the field of poetry, he wrote multiple books in Persian, Urdu, and English. The main purpose of his poetry is to motivate Muslims to achieve their glorious past. He earned a degree in doctorate from Germany in the subject of Philosophy.

First time in history Allama Iqbal put forth the idea of separate and two nations in united India in 1930. He focused that Islam is a complete of life. After that Quaid E Azam worked Allama Iqbal two nations idea. Quaid E Azam built Pakistan on the idea of Allama Iqbal after his death in 1938. That's why Iqbal is our national hero and poet today.

Before the toured in UK Iqbal was the advocate of united idea. But on the returning of aboard Iqbal changed its mind in the support separate of homeland for Muslim. Throughout his life Allama Iqbal advocated for preaching the struggle of Pakistan. Basically Iqbal provided solution of civil war in united India by two nation's theory.

Allama Iqbal was the permanent member of All India Muslim League. He chaired multiple session of Muslim League in his political life. He adopted multiple professions in his life like, reformist, teaching, politics, and legal practice. The Poet east Allama Iqbal remained member of various social & political movements.

Allama Muhammad Iqbal was part of second & third round table conferences in England. There he represented interests of united Indian Muslim. He cleared there Hindus and Muslim could not live together forever.